MEDIA RELEASE

For immediate release 4th March 2011

Rural Youth W.A. Inc held its Annual General Meeting on the 26th February at the Subiaco Hotel in Perth. Once again, this event was supported well in attendance.

Rural Youth W.A. Inc would like to formally announce its State Management Board for the 2011 year.

The State Management Board consists of members from all over the state who are actively involved in their clubs. Former State President Stephen Keatley has returned to the RYWA Board and Brooke Perez returns representing the Bruce Rock Club, Nick Ruddenklau and Emily Gentle both from Esperance are joined by fellow club members Blake Halford and Courteney Moffat on the board. Lone member Clint Gartrell from Busselton and Josh Fuchsbichler from the Metro (Perth City) Club round out the board for 2011.

RYWA Inc is happy to welcome back Geof Stagbouer as Financial Management Officer and Mentor. RYWA Inc also welcomes former State President John Paul Collins as an appointed Board Member.

Esperance local and club member Blake Mills was elected as State President for 2011 and looks forward to a fulfilling year leading the organisation towards 2012.

Rural Youth W.A. Inc wishes to announce two exciting alliances for 2011.

Rural Youth W.A. Inc is pleased to announce their alliance with Act Belong Commit and is looking forward to working with this organisation in 2011. Joint Rural Youth W.A Inc and Act Belong Commit events will be advertised on both the RYWA Inc and the ABC websites.

Rural Youth W.A. Inc also wishes to announce their partnership with FarmSafe WA. RYWA looks forward to becoming further involved with this important organisation promoting the issue of farm and family safety in rural and regional Western Australia.
